GÖSTA GASSMANN

Situated in the heart of Berlin's Mitte district, the Cosmo Hotel Berlin Mitte is the perfect urban retreat for travelers who appreciate individualized style and hospitality. From its elegant and timeless scent restaurant specializing in "aroma cuisine" to its 84 minimalist-designed rooms and relaxation spaces, it offers cosmopolitan citizens personal attention and access to the best of real Berlin. The hotel's dedicated concierge service reserves tables at the hippest restaurants, opens doors to the city's chic and underground clubs, and leads guests to the newest cultural destinations or to the top boutiques for a Berlin-style splurge. Cosmo understands what its guests need: direct access to the right places in the right parts of the city. Cosmo's design and outlook epitomizes the flavor of contemporary Berlin: a juxtaposition between light, inviting spaces and the gritty, insular underground, an ever-evolving hub of cultural activity where artists, architects, designers, and other creatives continually redefine their city and regularly launch international trends. Cosmo is the ideal location both for first-timers discovering this vibrant city and for regular visitors who want the easiest access to all of their favorite haunts while enjoying the utmost in comfort, luxury, and style.

MEET THE ORIGINAL

Originally from Stuttgart, Gösta Gassmann is the son of Karl Friedrich, one of Playa de las Americas's hotel pioneers. In 1998 he opened the Ocean Drive Ibiza, one of the first members of Design Hotels™, after two years of renovation. Attracted by the dynamic growth and internationality of the German capital, Gassmann opened the Cosmo Hotel in Berlin's Mitte district in early 2010. Located in a former office building, Cosmo's facade is dominated by natural stone and glass. Today, Gösta Gassmann – together with his brother Axel – manages a total of nine hotels scattered throughout Germany and Spain. He currently lives in Munich, loves traveling to Asia and mountainous regions, and is still a part-time resident of Ibiza.
